

The First Americans were promised a “State of their own”, by our founding fathers. In the 1890’s the federal government was pressured to make Indian Territory a state open to white settlement. The 5 Civilized Tribes united, hiring lawyers, representatives and aggressively pursued the federal government for the State of Sequoyah, where the lands would remain together as our “promised Indian State”. This effort failed with the “Grand Rush For The Indian Territory”.
