

429 - "PROMISED LANDS"

The First Americans were promised a “State Of Their Own”, by our founding fathers: another broken promise.

In the 1890’s the federal government was pressured to make Indian Territory a state open to white settlement. The 5 Civilized Tribes united, hiring lawyers, representatives, and aggressively pursued the federal government for the State of Sequoyah, where the lands would remain together as our “Promised Indian State”.
