

"CIRCLE OF FRIENDS"

The circle of the artwork represents the friends and IACA family of members around the world.

All the figures face in a counter clockwise direction, (in harmony with the rotation of Mother Earth), to better promote and honestly represent American Indian Arts & crafts.

In the middle background a "Nova" is expanding outward to represent the creation of IACA. The six figures in the middle represent the founding members. The 24 outer night and day figures represent the ethnic variety of membership.

There are a total of 30 figures in the artwork, one each to celebrate the 30th. Anniversary.
