A TIME OF DIVISION, EVASION AND REMOVAL

24"x48"x12" Hand cut with a plasma cutter, the original heat treated steel sculpture is mounted on a hand finished wood base with hand lettered story on the back.

The early 1800's was a dark time in Cherokee history; some sold their land to the white's and moved West; some hid out in their sacred hills, and still others had their land seized, locked up, and moved by force on the Trail Of Tears, to lands in the West.
