MAY 2, 2016

In May of this year Mickey Replogle, principal of "Oneta Ridge Middle School" in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, invited me to speak to the combined art classes about my Art and Cherokee Heritage.

On the morning of May 2nd. I had a very enjoyable time discussing my 45 years as an Artist and how I told the story of the Cherokee people, thru my art, coast to coast at Art Shows and Cultural Events. The students were very attentive and presented me with some very interesting questions.

I left the school that morning with the feeling that the future of Art will be in good hands.
