SUMMER 2013

2013 - AWARD WINNING YEAR

I am limiting the number of shows I will be doing this year and in the future. I will still be on the road, but limiting the number of shows will allow me to vacation and have road trips with the family.

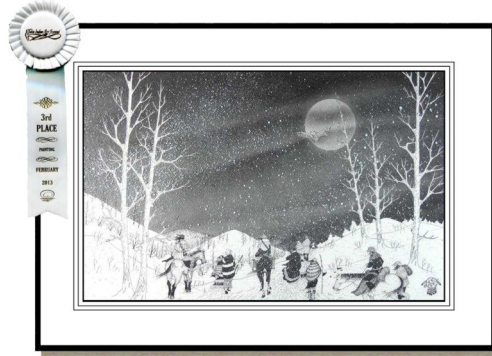

Even with a reduced schedule this Spring and Summer, I have been blessed with several awards in regional and national Indian art shows and exhibits.

I will be exhibiting several award winning originals and prints with "Sandbar Trading", July 12-14, in the Wichita Kansas Indian Festival at the Century 2 Expo Hall.
