WINNER AT MUSEUM SHOW

An important event for artists who are descendants of the Five Civilized Tribes, the Annual Competitive Art Show at the Five Civilized Tribes Museum, awarded Ron Mitchell the "Cecil Dick Master of Heritage Memorial Award". This award is presented to the artist whose work best exemplifies the traditional two-dimensional painting style of the late Cherokee artist Cecil Dick.

The Show continues through July 31, 2010.

FOUR IN A ROW

Four Shows in a row, Red Earth, Eiteljorg, Cherokee NC Art Market, and Cahokia Mounds are now in my rear view mirror for 2010. Overall they were successful, but sales were down at Red Earth and Cherokee NC Art Market. The change in the Dates for this years shows didn't help. Next year Red Earth returns to the First week end in June for its 25th show. Cherokee NC Art Market will return stay the same as this year, over the 4th of July weekend.

CUSTOM LAMP-SCULPTURES

At the Eiteljorg Museum show the Clark's purchased a Bear Wall Sculpture and commissioned me to make four custom table lamps for their new cabin in the Smoky Mountains. The finished lamps are on their way to their new home.
